

---

Achievement Standard 3.2

Technology – General Education

Level 3

Credits: 8

Internal Assessment

AS 90620

Develop a one-off solution to address a client issue

Resource Notes and practical assessment ideas

This achievement standard involves the use of project management tools to support brief development, and the development, implementation and evaluation of a one-off solution that addresses a client issue.

Stage 2

Develop

Implement one-off solution

Demonstrate its fitness for purpose to the client

Key stakeholders consultation

Demonstrate fitness for purpose to client and any other key stakeholders

- critically analysis and evaluate own and others' practice.
- clearly articulate the underpinning knowledge, skills, ethics, values and attitudes of all involved in the technological practice.
- Access and assess multiple viewpoints such as direct and indirect research, idea generation, stakeholder feedback, feasibility
- focus on holistic technological practice
- identify an appropriate client with an issue that allows for a range of potential needs and/or opportunities to be identified.
- selection of at least one need or opportunity for further development as part of their technological practice towards one-off solution.
- The client issue to be resolved by the development and implementation of a one-off solution
- Identify real Issue with interaction with real stakeholders in their social and physical environment.
- solution will need to be trialed and evaluated within its intended location
- identify both opportunities and constraints of their technological practice in their social and physical environment.
- project management tools should be developed for projections in their technological practice and ongoing resource management.